WARNING! Stop Watching Porn. It's A Relationship Killer. How To Stop In 3 Easy Steps.

Porn Is A Relationship Killer

Now deep down I know that you guys generally know for sure that porn is not good for your relationship or good for you to watch in general. If it was ok then you would not lie that you didn't watch porn in the first place.

Millions of Women Hate Their Partners Watching Porn

So why do I and millions of women dislike our partner watching porn? Well it's not our partner we dislike, it's the thought of our partner getting sexually aroused to another or several different women.

I'm Convinced!

I am absolutely convinced that if far more women watched porn, then men would feel exactly as women feel. Would you really think it was ok for your partner to wank herself daily sometimes twice or more a day to a selection of buff men with big dicks?

Do Women Watch Porn?

And yes some women do watch porn but unlike men, women can switch of porn when they have a “real relationship” and focus on their partner solely. If you or your partner watches porn whilst in a relationship then you both lack that sexual connection with each other. Porn is what I call stand alone sex which means you by yourself.

So What's Important To You About Watching Porn?

Porn may fulfil a need, but..... short lived and is extremely addictive.

Men who watch porn are in total denial that porn is addictive and when it comes to meeting someone, porn totally skews their perception of real life reality of what a female actually does during sexual intercourse. This is a big time badass problem!

Here`s some reasons why....

1. Do you EVER see porn star women in your normal day to day life? No? Why is that? Because porn stars are not real. It`s an act, it`s a show. Porn stars are only in porn. Here`s the problem with this.

Men love porn stars and want porn stars but there aren`t no porn stars out there so put pressure on “normal” chicks to perform like a porn star or think about porn and porn stars whilst having sex with their “normal” partner

2. Perfect hair, perfect nails, super skinny, no marks, no zits, no spots or scars to be seen and massive fake boobs. How insecure do you want your partner to feel whilst you wank over someone that no women in the “real world” can ever compete or get close to ever looking like. Even the actual porn star doesn't look like that in "real life" .It`s called shit loads of makeup and Photoshop/editing

3. Slapped, strangled, gang banged, tied up, spit on, cock suffocation and insulted then put in the most painful sexual angles that can ever be thought of, then fucked so hard I think it`s damaging her insides then coming in her mouth or all over her face which makes her look like a complete fool. And that`s soft porn. And your partner can sexually compete with this? Why the hell would you want her to anyways?

The more you watch porn the more you want someone who does what you watch.

When it comes to television shows, films and movies our brains are used to knowing it`s not real. But porn is intentionally filmed in a real life way. No big budget Hollywood style camera works.

Even though porn is a big bucks industry they film porn like its "real life" , and most people are not in the top 1 percent of riches, so porn target the 98-99 percent of customers who are not rich as that` s a way bigger market. So porn is filmed on an average or low budget “lookalike” scale to keep men addicted and believe that it’s true life.

Porn Compared To Star Wars!!!

You could watch Star Wars in the cinema but then would not be looking to meet Jedi knights afterwards in your normal life. Cos the Jedi is an actor and so is a porn star. But men don’t separate porn this way.

Here`s the catch 22 with porn....

Are You In This Catch 22 Phase?

So porn will give you a false sense of sex that is not real and totally unachievable plus porn will make your partner insecure as so would you be if your partner compared you to a porn star constantly.

Is Sex Boring?

Then sex becomes boring for you and boring and painful for your partner as men just slam their penis into women and turn them over and put them in position like porn stars without even asking or thinking it may be painful.

Then resentment kicks in.....

Arguments start and then relationship done. So relationship done, your single again so start watching porn again then you find a partner but do that constant comparing to porn stars shit which is not real so you end up being dumped then as your single again you start watching porn again.

Get Of This Hamster Wheel of frustration!

Here`s The Good News

HUMAN INTERACTION

Real life is far better to fake. Real life relationships is having something tangible, in front of you who you can communicate with and pleasure, as well as pleasuring yourself.

Happy Wife Happy Life

Have you ever notice you are most happy when it comes to pleasuring a partner? Porn is short lived with no contact, no communication and only satisfies you. So if you get a partner and have an amazing sex life then the porn world will vanish quick time.

Most relationship fail when porn is involved as both couples don't know what to do to replace porn. Top dog proper sex education is the key to eradicate porn.

Having that sexual chemistry with someone "in front of you" knowing her likes and dislikes, learning foreplay, sexual positions that are not painful for her but just as fulfilling and having loads of sexual ideas that can be implemented immediately will automatically make you have a unique passionate bound with your partner that most don't. That my friend porn will never do.

LEARN HOW TO STOP WATCHING PORN RIGHT NOW!

So You Can Start Having an Ever Better Sex Life with Your Partner

Step 1) Viagra Pill

It doesn't matter how young or old you are. If you have been watching porn then it will probably affect your "normal" sex life with your partner which means you may not get hard or if you do get hard you may go soft really quickly.

The only way to stop this is by going on this pill. Now you don't have to be on Viagra forever, just until you adjust to sexual heightened sex with your partner instead of getting sexually aroused by porn.

Step 2) Foreplay

Most couples don't do foreplay as they really don't know what it is. Foreplay is when you have fun and learn each other's likes and also dislikes for sex. One example of foreplay is a massage. Say you massage each other before sex, and then you can ask your partner to massage your penis in a certain way, massage your ball bags, and maybe even massage your anus. Then she can tell you where she may like to be touched also.

Once you know where each other's sexual heighten zones are, then you can experiment with other things like food example: ice cream or whipped cream or even ice cubes plus sexual toys.

This will heighten both of your sex drives which leads to better sexual chemistry and sexually connection and communication which will bond you both as a couple far more also. Now this is only ONE example of foreplay. There are tons of things you can do. It's up to the both of you to use your imaginations.

Step 3) Sexy Fun Times

Sex is not supposed to be boring... But that can happen when doing the same regular patterns of sex over and over again. Spice things up by doing different sexual things.

One example is making a night for sex. Book a hotel. Now this is not supposed to be sleazy, and this does not need to cost the earth either. Book a room mid week in a nice hotel. Rooms are much cheaper mid week.

Here`s A Idea? Maybe go for a meal with your partner then back to the hotel. Smuggle in some wine, snacks, candles and massage oils. Put some romantic tunes on your mobile phone and play them whilst in the hotel room. This is far more enjoyable, fun and exciting then your “normal” sexual experience.

The Trick To Better Sex

This benefits you more then you even know

The trick to better sex is knowing how to satisfy your partner that means the both of you knowing how to satisfy each other, that happens during foreplay. This way you connect with your partner like no other relationship plus porn will automatically be replaced as porn is not tangible.

Men are born and structured to make their partner happy which includes sexual satisfaction. Don't you feel bad when your partner is not happy? But if you make her happy don't you feel amazing? If sex is not great in a relationship, instead of working on how to make you happy again in sex by watching porn which is a women faking being happy, try finding out your partners sexual pleasures and that will make her happy and you happy.

It's not necessarily the different sexual positions and the big boobs that men like about porn. It's more that all the women "seem" to like and enjoy sex that sexual gets you off. You see men get sexual satisfaction by women "getting off" that's why men love porn. So make your partner enjoy sex and you will have an actual real life situation which is far far better than porn!
